

Learn More About The “Faces” Behind Your Drinking Water

The City of Walled Lake works with the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department to delivery safe drinking water to our taps. “Faces of Water” introduces some of the people who manage the water treatment process and distribution system through video and detailed narratives. Please click <http://www.dwsdoutreach.org> to read the article and to also watch the video.